

Australian Religious Response to Climate Change

ARRCC

A multi-faith network
committed to taking action
on climate change.

“ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS” Multi-faith Forum

A distinguished panel of speakers representing each of the main religious faiths will address the moral and ethical issues involved in tackling environmental degradation, climate change, as well as hatred and violence and the ecological destruction that results.

Come and hear from these inspiring speakers, and take part in one of the participatory workshops on:

- ❖ Sustainable use of natural resources by reducing consumption and wastage;
- ❖ Sustaining biodiversity by preserving plants and animals;
- ❖ Living a simple, happy and peaceful life-style free from greed, hatred and fear.

Sunday 9th October 2011

2pm – 5pm

University of Western Sydney

Parramatta Campus,
Room: PS-EB.G.02

Admission is free.
Refreshments will be provided.
(Donations welcome.)

RSVP by 30 Sept 2011

Please register online:

www.arrcc.org.au/ecoforum

Participating Organisations:

Hindu Council of Australia

Australian Religious
Response to Climate Change

Faith and Ecology
Network

UWS
Multi-faith
Chaplaincy